Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 1 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

Status

- 1) Responsive to communication(s) filed on 09 March 2006.
- 2a) This action is FINAL.                  2b) This action is non-final.
- 3) Since this application is in condition for allowance except for formal matters, prosecution as to the merits is closed in accordance with the practice under Ex parte Quayle, 1935 C.D. 11, 453 O.G. 213.

DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
  - I. Claims 1-5 and 16-20, drawn to a data processing system for server requests, classified in class 709, subclass 217.
  - II. Claims 6-10, drawn to an apparatus containing client workstations implementing a modified network protocol, classified in class 709, subclass 230.
  - III. Claims 11-15, drawn to a method for processing a plurality of transactions and converting the data therein, classified in class 709, subclass 246.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

2. Inventions I, II, and III are unrelated, based upon Applicant's admissions in the remarks filed 12/5/2005. Inventions are unrelated if it can be shown that they are not disclosed as capable of use together and they have different designs, modes of operation, and effects (MPEP § 802.01 and § 806.06).
3. Applicant admitted, "Claim 6 is an independent apparatus claim having various limitations (e.g., "input view file", "generic server", etc.) which are neither found in claim 1 nor in Holmes. Therefore, the examination is inadequate as a matter of law wherein the Examiner states: The rejection of claim 1 is applied against claim 6." Applicant admitted claim 1 and claim 6 (herein denoted as Group I and Group II) were different and distinct inventions.
4. Applicant admitted, "Claim 11 is an independent method claim having four key steps. Notwithstanding the differences in claimed limitations and the differences in statutory and judicial standards of patentability between apparatus and method claims, the Examiner states: The limitations of this claim are substantially the same as the limitations of claims 1 and 6. The rejections of claims 1 and 6 are applied against claim 11." Applicant admitted Claim 11 (Group III) was different and distinct from both Claim 1 (Group I) and Claim 6 (Group II).
5. Applicant admitted the three grouped inventions were different and distinct. Applicant admitted examination was inadequate based upon these distinctions in the inventions.

Art Unit: 2145

6. Because these inventions are independent or distinct for the reasons given above and there would be a serious burden on the examiner if restriction is not required because the inventions have acquired a separate status in the art in view of their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

7. Because these inventions are independent or distinct for the reasons given above and there would be a serious burden on the examiner if restriction is not required because the inventions have acquired a separate status in the art due to their recognized divergent subject matter, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

8. Because these inventions are independent or distinct for the reasons given above and there would be a serious burden on the examiner if restriction is not required because the inventions require a different field of search (see MPEP § 808.02), restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions or species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions or species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.
